FEDERAL USURPATION.

We explained yesterday in full the law and the facts and the intentions of the Mahone Radical ring, in their attempt to overrun this State by a use of Federal power, prostituted to the uses of the infamous ring of politicians who, having no principles, have organized a plan for arbitrary rule in the South by the authority of Quay and his gang.

Happily we have a foretaste of what the plan is when the judges of election in Charlotte were arrested by Federal marshals on a trumped up charge. We know now that this trick will be tried on election day, and we know also that the men who do all this business is absolutely unrecognized by the honesty of the State, for the respectable Republicans have kicked them out of the party. Therefore, we are fighting not the respectable pretenses of the Republican party, but a pirate gang, who aim to capture this State under the black flag and use its offices and franchises for booty of war.

And you cannot make anything else out of the situation.

An intelligent negro said the other day that if there was to be violence let the negroes first kill the white Republicans, and that is exactly the size of it.

The white scalawags who have no social or political recognition at home run to the North and be themselves black in the face, like Mark Twain's Jay bird, to show that they represent a local martyrdom, viz.:

That the Republicans in Virginia have the majority, but that the election may go against them. Let the respectable Republicans of the State answer that question.

They will say of Mahone and the gang that Mahone could carry the State could he use Federal marshals on election day.

Let him try that. He made one great mistake in Charlotte county, and the next play of an over-vain conceit will be worse.

The Northern people know that Quay & Co. have no right, even backed by the President, to invade the rights of the States in local elections, and if Mahone is allowed to use the United States Marshals on election day he may find that the question will involve something beyond a mere constitutional one.

The people may not stand quiet and see such a little pirate work that game.

NATIONAL AFFAIRS.

The Bodier Ring—Quay, Dudley, Wanamaker & Co.—understand perfectly that the State of Virginia is the gate of the Solid South and that if they can break that portal they can erect in the South an arbitrary rule that will make up the loss in the North caused by the lapse of the Republican party from real principles. As the war fades in the distance, and its passions give place to reason and sense, the people of the two great sections recognize each other as brethren identified in interest, politics, and business.

The Radicals see that the fabric of their party is gone as soon as the war sentiment is dead, behind which they perpetrated such gigantic fallacies as high taxes on the necessary articles of life and prohibitory duties on raw materials, which shut out the markets of the world to the people both for supply and demand.

Therefore the Radicals propose to put the fettors on the South, and count it by a star chamber electoral board at Washington according to the census made by their bureau.

The vote must be counted by the Republican census report, and not by the election returns.

Wherever the Republican census reports shows a negro majority of popula- tion the Federal supervisors must take it for granted that there is a Rep- ublican majority.

This is the plan that awaits the arbitrament of the Virginia election next week.

It is an affair of the whole country.

MAHONE AS A POLITICAL LEADER.

EVEN the most acrimonious and uncompromising enemies of General Ma- hone have been disposed to acknowledge his capacity as an organizer. Boldly denying that he has the least claim to moral consideration, they reluctantly admit his ability as a political manager. In other words, they regard him as a political Lucifer, who, while totally indifferent to moral principles, is yet able to control, direct and inspire a great host of degraded spirits. That Mahone has a certain kind of capacity as an organizer and leader is unquestionable, but that he possesses very remarkable capacity in either character, is, we think, not borne out by his career. His most vocal supporters are fond of speaking of him as another Napoleon. Did Napoleon ever, except in a few instances, and then for good reasons, fail to utilize the history and change the name.

GOVERNOR LEE'S INTERVIEW IN THE WORLD OF YESTERDAY AGREES WITH WHAT WE HAVE STATED, viz.: that the prosperity of Virginia has all been under Demo- cratic rule, and that the Northern Re- publicans in Virginia recognize this and vote on local issues with the Democrats.

THE MINISTER TO MEXICO CRITICISES THE IDEA OF PROHIBITING DUTIES ON ANY ARTICLES BETWEEN THIS COUNTRY AND MEXICO, and declares that a fair plan of reciprocal measures would cause in a few years a trade of over $100,000,000 a year between Mexico and the States.

IT IS SAID THAT MR. POWDERLY WILL IN- SUGGEST RADICAL CHANGES IN THE METHODS OF THE KNIGHTS OF LABOR.

The first thing to do would be to blot out the history and change the name.
